WINSTON INSIDER REORGANIZES SHAREHOLDINGS

Toronto, Ontario, November 10, 2014 - Winston Resources Inc. (CSE: WRW) ("Winston" or the "Company") and Daniel Wettreich its Chairman and CEO, together with Sammiri Capital Inc. ("Sammiri"), a private company that is wholly owned by Daniel Wettreich, and Mark Wettreich, a director and officer of Winston, announce that Sammiri has purchased from Mark Wettreich, an aggregate of 2,880,000 common shares in the capital of Winston. This reorganization of the Wettreich family shareholdings was carried out for investment purposes.

Immediately after the transaction Mark Wettreich no longer holds any shares in Winston, and including the shares held by Sammiri, Daniel Wettreich holds, directly and indirectly, an aggregate of 7,617,840 common shares of the Company, representing approximately 77.24% of the Company's issued and outstanding common shares. Sammiri acquired the above-noted common shares of the Company for investment purposes and it may, depending on market and other conditions, increase or decrease its beneficial ownership, control or direction over the common shares or other securities of the Company, through market transactions, private agreements, or otherwise. The consideration for the securities acquired by Sammiri was at a deemed price of $0.05 per share. The sale of the above-noted common shares of the Company by Mark Wettreich to Sammiri was carried out pursuant to an exemption from prospectus requirements as set out in Section 2.8 of National Instrument 45-102 - Prospectus and Registration Exemptions.
