West Isle Energy Inc. Submits Cease Trade Order Partial Revocation Application

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Calgary, Alberta –February 17, 2016 - West Isle Energy Inc. (CSE: WEI) (“West Isle” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that the Company has submitted an application for a partial revocation of the cease trade orders originally issued against the Company by the Alberta Securities Commission (the “ASC”) on June 5, 2012 and the British Columbia Securities Commission (the “BCSC”) on May 8, 2013.

The primary purpose of the partial revocation is to permit West Isle to complete an exempt financing in order to raise sufficient funds to prepare and file all of the Company’s outstanding continuous disclosure documents and pay the associated fees. The Company expects to provide additional details in the near future once the ASC and BCSC have considered the application.

For more information about West Isle visit the Company’s website www.westisleenergy.com, the Company’s CSE profile page at www.cnsx.ca, or the Company’s continuous disclosure documents filed on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

This news release includes certain statements that may be deemed “forward-looking statements”. All statements in this news release, other than statements of historical facts, which address future activities including the completion of the financing, exploration drilling and activity, and events or developments that West Isle intends, plans, anticipates, believes, estimates or expects, are forward-looking statements. Actual results may differ materially. Although the Company believes such forward looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, such statements are not guarantees of future performance and actual results or developments may differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to: availability and costing of exploration contractors; exploration success; continued availability of capital; government regulations, laws and charges; environmental developments; exploitation economics; and general economic, market, financial and business conditions. The Company does not intend, and does not assume any obligation, to update these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof. More detailed information about potential factors that could affect financial results is included in the documents filed by West Isle from time to time with applicable Canadian securities regulatory authorities. This news release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of any offer to buy securities in any jurisdiction.
